THE CLIFFS

1986 —
"It was a very good year."
Our first high school days were Filled with new freshman fear.
Finding the right classes was always a treat
With the seniors and their directions we'd end up on Front Street!

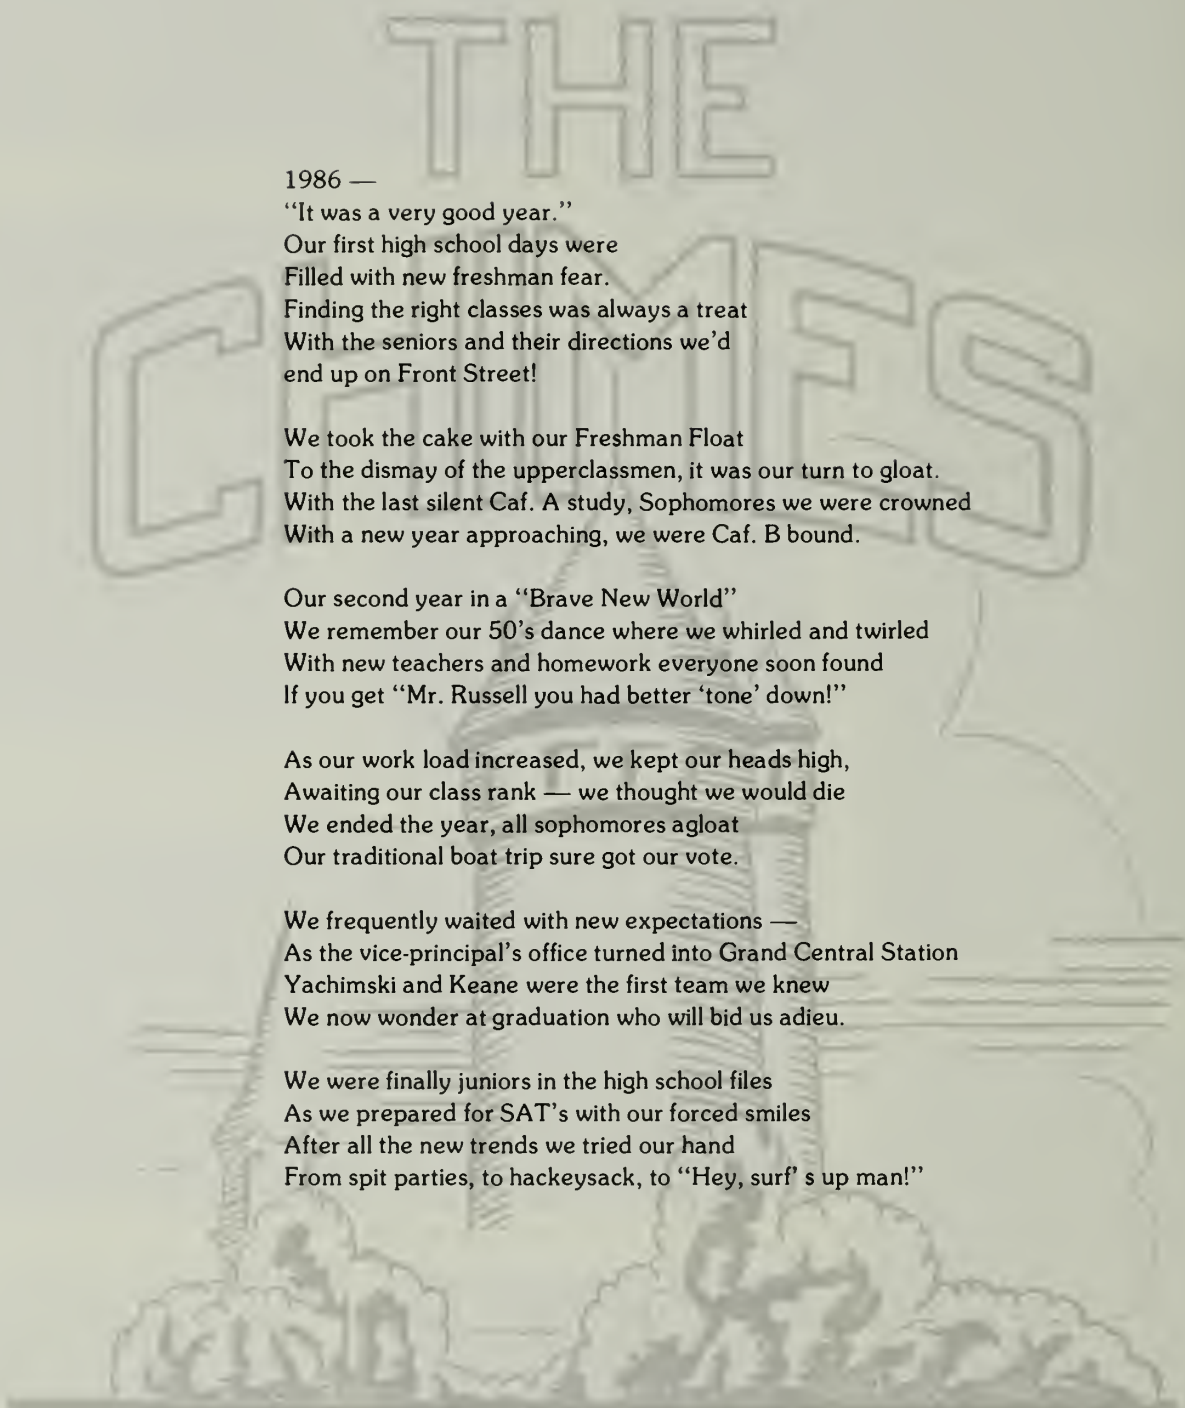
We took the cake with our Freshman Float
To the dismay of the upperclassmen, it was our turn to gloat.
With the last silent Caf. A study, Sophomores we were crowned
With a new year approaching, we were Caf. B bound.

Our second year in a "Brave New World"
We remember our 50's dance where we whirled and twirled
With new teachers and homework everyone soon found
If you get "Mr. Russell you had better 'tone' down!"

As our work load increased, we kept our heads high,
Awaiting our class rank — we thought we would die
We ended the year, all sophomores agloat
Our traditional boat trip sure got our vote.

We frequently waited with new expectations —
As the vice-principal's office turned into Grand Central Station
Yachimski and Keane were the first team we knew
We now wonder at graduation who will bid us adieu.

We were finally juniors in the high school files
As we prepared for SAT's with our forced smiles
After all the new trends we tried our hand
From spit parties, to hackeysack, to "Hey, surf' s up man!"



THE TIMES

Months of anticipation, while scrambling for a date,
Almost like summer, we just couldn't wait
It was our junior Prom and we made it shine
Thanks Chris MacNeil for a memorable Time.

We finally became seniors, with nothing to fear
As to our futures, our minds still aren't clear.
With interviews and applications, we've been on the run
yet we've still made the time for some senior fun.

We've been rather distressed at the increase in rules
Five tardies for a suspension is not really cool.
To another new principal we've had to adjust
So goodbye Dr. Gowen — Dr. Alson or bust!

We still don't know when Mr. McReady's birds were last seen . . .
Or Mr. Nord's secret friend, the infamous "Phyllis Steene?"
As juniors we lost the "Superbowl" to the senior girls,
But as seniors we were titled "Powderpuff Champions of the World"

So our years have ended with laughter and tears
We'll remember you, S.H.S., in our upcoming years.
We'll Treasure the knowledge that we have been given
As we each start to build our own
"Stairway to Heaven."
